FEATURED Guest Speakers

This year’s speakers represent a diverse group of views, perspectives, and inspiration on new and unique trends in the industry as well as look to the future of nurse anesthesia from several nationally recognized speakers.

Gregory Colins, DNP, CRNA

Dr. Collins serves as Assistant Professor of Professional Practice in the Texas Christian University School of Nurse Anesthesia and maintains an active clinical practice in the Fort Worth area. He has over 17 years of independent nurse anesthesia experience, with most of that time spent in a high-acuity, high-volume obstetric practice.

Larry G. Hornsby, BSN, CRNA

Larry Hornsby is a highly recognized expert in the business of anesthesia. He has owned and managed numerous health-related companies, including an anesthesia billing company, an anesthesia management and billing consulting service, multiple anesthesia companies providing anesthesia services to hospitals, surgery centers, and physician practices, an anesthesia staffing company, and an anesthesia continuing education seminar company. He is currently the Program Director of The Hornsby Business Institute at the Middle Tennessee School of Anesthesia.

Stacy Yancey, MSNA, CRNA

Stacy Yancey is an amateur historian and political scientist, having earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in History with a minor in political science from Winthrop University in 2005. She later earned a BSN from the University of North Carolina at Greensboro in 2011, and her MSNA from Wake Forest University School of Medicine Nurse Anesthesia Program in 2016. She is a passionate advocate for the nurse anesthesia profession and is a past president of NCANA. She currently serves as the AANA Region 4 Director.
