FEATURED Guest Speakers

Dr. Matthew Zinder

Dr. Matthew Zinder has worked in healthcare for 30 years, beginning as an EMT at a volunteer fire station, and now owns a Maryland-based mobile anesthesia practice (in business since 1984) while speaking nationally and internationally on stress management, clinician wellness, and anesthesia practice/business. He hosts The Provider Wellness Podcast, co-owns ProgramPrep for SEE and NCE prep, is Immediate-Past President of the Maryland Association of Nurse Anesthetists and serves on the AANA State Organizational Development Committee, and teaches at Wilmington University and as adjunct faculty at VCU, Fairfield, and Georgetown nurse anesthesia programs.

Dr. Richard Wilson

Dr. Richard Wilson earned his Masters in Nurse Anesthesia from the University of South Carolina School of Medicine (2006) and his Doctor of Nurse Anesthesia Practice from the Medical University of South Carolina (2022). He currently serves as Assistant Program Director – East Coast for Ursuline College's Somnia Nurse Anesthesia Program and previously helped open the University of South Carolina's second campus in Greenville, SC. He authored the Blood Component Therapy chapter in the latest edition of Nurse Anesthesia and has published in JOPAN and the AANA Journal. In 2023, he was selected as a Fellow of the American Association of Nurse Anesthesiology, serves as an AANA Social Media Ambassador, was elected to the AANA Leadership Identification Committee, and continues to practice clinically while mentoring future CRNAs through CRNA School Prep Academy.

Dr. Roseann Diehl

A CRNA for over 26 years, Roseann has practiced at Sanford in Fargo since 2009 and is faculty at Texas Christian University. She earned her DNP at TCU and a PhD in Nursing from Texas Woman's University. Her research and publications include work in Critical Care Quarterly, AANA Journal, and a chapter on anesthetic complications in the Nurse Anesthesia textbook.
